ATTEND THE NHAR 2005 ANNUAL CONVENTION FOR FREE!!!

The Greater Manchester/Nashua Board of REALTORS® would like to send some lucky REALTOR® member to the NHAR 2005 Annual Convention this fall. The convention is being held at the magnificent Grand Summit Resort Hotel in Bartlett, New Hampshire. The dates are September 18 through the 21st. The board will pay your registration fee as well as your room and board for three nights. Registration includes two continental breakfasts, two lunches, breaks, receptions, all sessions and Exhibitors' Showcase. (Optional banquets are not included). What's the catch? First, you must be a REALTOR®. Secondly, you must be a member of GMNBR. Thirdly, you must not have attended a NHAR state convention in the past.

Why is your board doing this? This is our way of encouraging participation in this quality event that will definitely improve your bottom line. All you have to do is send an email to GMNBR Executive Officer Joan Baldessari at joan@gmnbr.org with a brief note telling us why you would like to attend this event, and why you think you should be the lucky recipient. All entries must be received by June 30th and the winner will be chosen at random on or before July 15th. Good Luck!!

CAST YOUR VOTE NOW!

The entries are in for a new name for the newsletter. The following are the submissions that were received. Please register your vote by sending your choice to info@gmnbr.org. The one with the most votes will win. The new name will be announced in the June newsletter. If your selection is the winning entry your name will be entered into a drawing to receive a free admission to one regular membership meeting of your choice *

BONNIE GUEVIN NAMED 2005 GMNBR REALTOR® OF THE YEAR

BEDFORD, NH – The Greater Manchester/Nashua Board of REALTORS® recently named Bonnie Guevin of Manchester, NH the 2005 GMNBR REALTOR® of the Year. The announcement was made May 18 at the annual GMNBR REALTOR® of the Year Luncheon held at the Bedford Village Inn, Bedford, NH.

Guevin, of Bonnie Guevin & Associates in Manchester, NH has an extensive record at the local, state and national level. She has held a leadership position with GMNBR for many years serving as Treasurer, Vice President and most recently as President in 2004. Guevin has been a member of the Board of Directors for both GMNBR and the New Hampshire Association of REALTORS® (NHAR) for several terms. She has served on numerous committees and task forces with GMNBR and NHAR in addition to being a committee Chair and Vice Chair. Guevin is also a member of the National Association of REALTORS® (NAR) Medium Board Leadership Forum Committee in which she is the 2005 Vice Chair and 2006 Chair. Further, she has acted as a mediator for both the GMNBR and NHAR and has served on the Executive Committee for NHAR. Beyond her commitment to GMNBR, Guevin is a member liaison for three other local boards in New Hampshire. Committed to the betterment of the REALTOR® organization, Guevin is also a Granite Club Member of the REALTOR® Political Action Committee (RPAC) and a Lifetime Member of the NHAR Honor Society.

When commenting on why she feels it is important to be active within the REALTOR® organization, “Volunteerism is the only way our organization will continue to grow through good leadership and I believe New Hampshire has some of the best. We must continue to work together as an organization adhering to the Code of Ethics to keep our profession on the upward swing in both the members eyes as well as the consumers,” said Guevin. “My philosophy is even though we are individuals in a competitive profession, we still need to have a TEAM attitude. I look at the REALTOR® organization as a family, one I am proud to be affiliated with, and cherish the relationships I have built with my fellow REALTORS®. So giving my time and energy only makes sense for the betterment of our profession,” she continued.

Guevin’s dedication doesn’t stop at the REALTOR® organization. For eight years she has held a position on the Moore Center Services Board of Directors, an organization committed to servicing physically and mentally disabled people. Her role with the organization included several years on the Business Advisory Committee and she was actively involved in establishing the Manchester Transit Authority. In 1994-1995 she was also voted the Director of the Year for the Manchester Boys and Girls Club.

Guevin, named one of the top ten “Women in Business” in 2004 by the Union Leader, was presented with a citation from Governor John Lynch and a proclamation from Mayor Robert Baines recognizing her outstanding commitment in the business and civic community. “I believe when you belong to an organization such as ours we need to give back to both the profession and community what you take out. I will continue to give as long as my service is needed and I will continue to serve both in the highest professional and ethical manner possible,” said Guevin.

The REALTOR® of the Year award is a longstanding and annual tradition which is recognized within the REALTOR® organization on a local, state and national level. Guevin was chosen for her superior commitment to the profession and the community. The basis of judgment evaluates each individual’s contribution to the betterment of community life and their exceptional business conduct. The recipient of the REALTOR® of the Year demonstrates true REALTOR® spirit, is involved with their local board, state and national associations, volunteers in the community and has significant business sales accomplishments.

Guevin's name will be submitted to NHAR for consideration for the statewide REALTOR® of the Year competition. The NHAR REALTOR® of the Year, chosen from among all of the local board winners in the state, will be announced at the state convention held in September, where all of the local REALTORS® of the Year will be recognized.

KRISTIN PRINCE NAMED 2005 GMNBR AFFILIATE OF THE YEAR

BEDFORD, NH – The Greater Manchester/Nashua Board of REALTORS® recently named Kristin Prince of Bedford, NH as the 2005 GMNBR Affiliate of the Year. The announcement was made May 18 at the annual GMNBR REALTOR® of the Year Luncheon held at the Bedford Village Inn, Bedford, NH.

Affiliate members of the GMNBR provide services to REALTORS® and their clients such as mortgage banking, title work, legal services, home inspections, appraising and relocation services. The recipient of the Affiliate of the Year honor demonstrates true professionalism, willingness to give their time for REALTOR® activities, is service oriented and shows courtesy and consideration to others.

Prince, a closing agent at Hubbard & Quinn Title Services in Amherst, NH, has been an Affiliate Member of GMNBR for many years. "In my work as a closing agent I strive to treat people fairly and honestly no matter what the closing may be like. I respect the role of the REALTOR® and the importance they bring to every real estate transaction," said Prince. "It is very rewarding for me to work closely with the REALTOR® to make the move a smooth process. I love doing closings, and provide a professional and reassuring presence at the closing table," she continued.

In 2004 Prince served as a Co-Chair of the GMNBR Community Service/Affiliates Committee and has served on other committees, most recently the GMNBR Education Committee. Throughout her time with GMNBR she has organized numerous events for the Board including trips to Foxwoods, a Monte Carlo fundraiser, The Way Home – Family Fun Walk and the GMNBR Golf Tournament. Prince's diligent role with the board has raised money for the GMNBR Scholarship Fund and other important causes in addition to supporting Board functions. When speaking of her dedication Prince says, "I feel that I get back just as much as I give by being involved. There are so many people, experienced and giving, that work on our committees. You become more aware of them and the issues our industry faces when you become involved." Beyond her functions with GMNBR, Prince is also a member of the Mortgage Banker & Brokers Association of NH Education Committee, the UNH Cooperative Extension Green Thumb, a church nursery volunteer and a "Children's Church" teacher.

"I love what I do and feel fortunate to work for people who feel the same importance that I do in giving back to the community we serve," said Prince. The Affiliate of the Year award is a longstanding and annual tradition which is recognized within the REALTOR® organization on a local, state and national level. Prince was chosen for her superior commitment to the profession and the community. The basis of judgment evaluates each individual's contribution to the betterment of community life and their exceptional business conduct.

GMNBR PARTICIPATES IN SENIORS COUNT SPRING CLEAN UP

MANCHESTER, NH – On Saturday, May 7, both REALTOR® and Affiliate members of the Greater Manchester/Nashua Board of REALTORS®, participated in a Spring Clean up for senior citizens in the Manchester area.

Despite the drizzly weather members of the GMNBR, and their families, turned out for Saturday's event to assist individuals in the elderly community with spring cleanup chores. Volunteers were dispersed to 145 homes in the Manchester community to assist senior citizens in projects such as raking lawns, changing batteries in smoke detectors and installing air conditioners. Many of these projects are difficult for the elderly to complete and Saturday's event was an invaluable service. "The homes we visited are just the people that requested help," said Rich Proulx a member of the GMNBR Community Service Committee and organizer of the event within the board. "There are many more people who haven't asked for the help or do not know that the help is out there for them," he said. The Spring Clean Up event was coordinated by the Voluntary Action Center in cooperation with Seniors Count, a program of Easter Seals.

Members of the GMNBR volunteer their time in a number of ways and regularly take part in community projects that have an affect on home ownership. Throughout the year the GMNBR Community Service Committee plans numerous projects and seeks to provide services that will better the local communities and enhance the REALTOR® image. The committee was aware that the ability to keep up with general maintenance could mean the difference of some seniors being able to stay in their homes and they were eager to lend a helping hand. "At one house we did basic cleaning, installed air conditioners, changed light bulbs and smoke detector batteries and raked lawns," said Proulx. "While at another home we inspected for safety issues and determined that the owner needed some maintenance work on her furnace which we turned over to the Fix-it program," he continued. Recognizing that elderly citizens oftentimes struggle with household chores the GMNBR members were thrilled to have the opportunity to join efforts with the Voluntary Action Center and the Seniors Count program. "I had a really good time. We met some really interesting people who had some great stories and I really enjoyed helping them out," said Proulx.

CASE INTERPRETATION

Related to Article 1 of NAR Code of Ethics

ARTICLE 1: When representing a buyer, seller, landlord, tenant, other client as an agent, REALTORS® pledge themselves to protect and promote the interests of their client. This obligation to the client is primary, but it does not relieve REALTORS® of their obligation to treat all parties honestly. When serving a buyer, seller, landlord, tenant or other party in a non-agency capacity, REALTORS® remain obligated to treat all parties honestly.

CASE #1-2: Honest Treatment to all Parties

As the exclusive agent of Client A, Realtor B offered Client A's house for sale, advertising it as being located near a bus stop. Prospect C, who explained that his daily schedule made it necessary for him to have a house near the bus stop, was shown Client A's property, liked it, and made a deposit. Two days later, Realtor B read a notice that the bus line running near Client A's house was being discontinued. He informed Prospect C of this, and Prospect C responded that he was no longer interested in Client A's house since the availability of bus transportation was essential to him. Realtor B informed Client A and recommended that Prospect C's deposit be returned.

Client A reluctantly complied with Realtor B's recommendation, but then complained to the board of Realtors that Realtor B had not faithfully protected and promoted his interests: that after Prospect C had expressed his willingness to buy; Realtor B should not have made a disclosure that killed the sale since the point actually was not of major importance. The new bus route, he showed, would put a stop within six blocks of the property.

In a hearing before a hearing panel of the Board's Professional Standards committee, Realtor B explained that in advertising Client A's property, the fact that a bus stop was less than a block from the property had been prominently featured. He also made the point that Prospect C, in consulting with him, had emphasized that Prospect C's physical disability necessitated a home near a bus stop. Thus, in his judgment, the change in bus routing materially changed the characteristics of the property in the eyes of the prospective buyer, and he felt under his obligation to give honest treatment to all parties in the transaction, that he should inform Prospect C, and that in so doing he was not violating his obligation to his client.

The hearing panel concluded that Realtor B had not violated Article 1, but had acted properly under both the spirit and the letter of the Code of Ethics. The panel noted that the decision to refund Prospect C's deposit was made by the seller, Client A; even though the listing broker, Realtor B, had suggested that it was only fair due to the change in circumstances.

What would you do in this circumstance? As a Realtor and abiding but the Realtor Code of Ethics, you should do exactly what Realtor B had done in this situation.

If you have any questions or comments regarding this circumstance, please feel free to E-mail Dhermann@kozyhomerealty.com. We can post these questions and comments to the newsletter next month and see how other Realtors would have acted.

REALTOR® ACTION ALERT

~ HAVE YOU CONTRIBUTED TO RPAC? ~

The New Hampshire REALTORS® Political Action Committee (NH RPAC) is organized and operated exclusively for the purpose of collecting political contributions. It is a voluntary, non-profit, unincorporated committee of individual REALTORS® and others, unaffiliated with any political party. The committee is an affiliate of the National Association of REALTORS® Political Action Committee.

The funds that are raised through RPAC are used to support political candidates for office. When these political candidates are elected to office they play an important role in supporting REALTOR® concerns. In the past they have effectively influenced legislation to its passage or have stopped it dead in its tracks.

Currently, there are 21 REALTORS® holding office in the New Hampshire Legislature, 20 in the House of Representatives, and 1 in the Senate. This year alone, by having REALTORS® represent us at the State House, we have effectively influenced several important pieces of legislation. We put a stop to the rent control bill, prevented additional impact fees for open space and fought against lien insurance proceeds.

On a state level we are well on our way to meeting the projected goal of $88,470 by having raised $81,685 to date. On a local level, however, we still have a way to go. The 2005 goal for GMNBR was $22,260 and as of June 1 we have only raised $15,039. All members of GMNBR are strongly encouraged to donate today. Your contribution is important to our future and will have an impact on the issues we are up against.

By contributing to RPAC you are directly influencing the legislation that affects our livelihood. If you haven't already done so, please consider making a donation to the NH RPAC. By doing so you are ensuring that RPAC dollars will continue to fight for REALTOR® concerns. To contribute please make checks out to RPAC and send to GMNBR, 166 South River Road, Bedford, NH 03110.

NNEREN BOARD VACANCY

The Greater Manchester/Nashua Board of REALTORS® has an opening for an alternate on the NNEREN board of directors. We would like to hear from anyone who thinks they would like to serve in this capacity.

Here is a brief summary of the position: Two alternates and two directors represent our board. The remaining 18 boards throughout the state are represented by a single director and a single alternate. Each director and alternate serves for a term of three years. The NNEREN board meets once a month at NNEREN headquarters in Concord and once a quarter in Vermont. Alternates attend all meetings and participate in all discussions. However, they only vote in the absence of one or more of the directors. Serving on this board involves a commitment but is a great learning experience. It also gives one the opportunity to have meaningful input on an important part of our business.

If you are interested in serving on the NNEREN board of directors as an alternate, please email GMNBR Executive Officer Joan Baldessari at joan@gmnbr.org no later than Tuesday July 21st with your reasons why you would like to do so. Also include a brief synopsis of your real estate experience. If you have specific questions about the NNEREN board or what might be expected you may contact former director Hank Stoudt. His email address is hstoudt@nhhomes.com.

Sincerely,

The GMNBR Board of Directors

OF AUCTIONEERS

Congratulations to Richard Berman, President of Berman Real Estate & Auctioning Inc., Nashua NH. Berman was recently nominated by Governor John H. Lynch, and confirmed by the Executive Council, to a 5-year term on the State Board of Auctioneers.

Berman, a REALTOR® for 40 years and a member of GMNBR for 37 years, is a past Director and present Treasurer for the NH Association of Auctioneers. When discussing the importance of his role with the State Board of Auctioneers Berman says, "more REALTORS® should consider getting involved in NH state legislative activities that affect their lives."

REALTORS®
PLEASE BE AWARE OF
NO SOLICITATION AREAS

It was recently brought to the attention of the GMNBR Board of Directors that agents are not adhering to posted rules on solicitation.

Please remember that some places, such as condominium developments, are designated as "no solicitation" areas. Everyone, including real estate agents, are prohibited from soliciting business in these areas.

Our actions affect our business and soliciting can hurt us, rather than help us. Please be aware of any rules that may posted in the neighborhoods you visit.
